

MINNEAPOLIS CENTRAL LIBRARY

Tuesday, May 24, 2016

7-9 PM

300 NICOLLET MALL
MINNEAPOLIS, MN
7-9 PM
POHLAD HALL

The Butterfly Effect is an inspiring documentary film about people: the farmers, teachers, artists and biologists in Minnesota, who are concerned about the dwindling population of monarch butterflies. This is an issue that many people have decided we can do something about.

The film is a series of stories, humorous, informative and heartfelt, about people who are changing their world one milkweed at a time.